ABOUT DAVE LIEBER

Dave Lieber, AKA, “The Yankee Cowboy” is an NBC commentator and award-winning, investigative Dallas Morning News columnist. Dave Lieber’s career involved riding a bull in a rodeo (or two), interviewing the Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and, once, helping solve a murder. He has a heart for non-profits, winning the prestigious Will Rogers Humanitarian Award for his work in establishing one of North Texas’ largest children’s charities.

He is founder of a consumer rights movement — WatchdogNation.com — which shows Americans how to protect themselves from thugs, thieves, scammers, and corporate skulduggery. He has penned books that will be available for signing at the event, and his latest columns are available on The Dallas Morning News Watchdog page. He fights for Americans and shows them how to save time, money and aggravation. He works to expose corruption and make positive change. TheDailyBeast.com named of his columns one of the 10 best in the U.S. in 2014.

Program Description:

We live in a time when it’s easier than ever to be dishonest. Create a web page. Look legit. It’s hard to tell who is for real anymore. Dallas Morning News Watchdog columnist Dave Lieber hears from consumers and business owners every day facing problems they never expected. Problems they don’t know how to solve. Problems, usually, that stem from broken promises made to them. But it’s all avoidable. Dave launched a movement to show Americans the powers they have to protect themselves.

For consumers, every purchase, every visit by a home service rep is a risk of sorts. For companies, though, the opposite is true. Every contact is an opportunity to shine. The bar is set low enough that average service is seen as great. Great is seen as extraordinary.

Takeaways:

- Mistakes, especially, are nothing to run from. They are opportunities to build lifetime relationships.
- Learn the basic Watchdog Nation self-protection rules that keep you out of trouble.
- Understand that due to the lack current solutions, self-protection is the ultimate goal. Self-reliance is key to a safe life.

GENERAL PROGRAM DISCLAIMERS:

LEGAL: Members of the Oklahoma Business Ethics Consortium frequently share information concerning various issues and developments that may have legal implications. The discussions, commentary, and handouts at Consortium meetings or presentations to other organizations are for general informational purposes only. They cover only some aspects of the subject topic, and do not constitute a complete legal analysis of the topic or how it might apply to any particular set of facts. Before taking any action based on information presented during a Consortium event, participants are encouraged to consult a qualified attorney.

CPE’S: From time to time, Continuing Professional Education credits are offered. Because OK Ethics relies heavily on volunteers to provide these, we do not have the manpower to send certificates after the program is completed.

REMINDER: PLEASE PICK UP CPE’S AT CONCLUSION OF EVENT.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Occasionally, photos of the event are made and these may be posted on the OK Ethics website or Facebook page. By attending the program, participants tacitly understand and agree to this process. If preferences are otherwise, please notify us at okethicsadmin@okethics.com or okethics@okethics.com or call (405) 558-1996 and we will be happy to comply with your wishes.

PRESENTATION STANDARDS:

The observations and comments of presenters at Consortium meetings and networking are the views and opinions of the presenter and do not constitute the opinion or policies of the Consortium or any of its members. Presenters are respectfully requested to honor OK Ethics Guiding Principles as well as avoid profanity, preaching, politics, put-downs and self-promotion during their lectures. To ensure accountability, participants are invited to evaluate each program according to these and other standards.

Book sales and signing by Dave Lieber will follow his presentation.

He will accept Mastercard, Visa, American Express, and Discover.

The Five Simple Ways to be a Super-Consumer

Dave Lieber's Watchdog Nation™

1. Check the people you hire and the items you buy on search engines before, not after when things go wrong. Search names of people, companies and items with the words ripoff, scam and complaints.
2. Keep records on a “power sheet.” Make them accountable by knowing whom you talk to — and letting them know you know.
3. Find their point of vulnerability. A simple search of a problem usually brings up the information they don't want you to know. Let them know you know it.
4. Ask a bunch of questions. The Detective Columbo method.
5. When all else fails, find their pressure point and squeeze. Who is their regulator?

Promoting Oklahoma values of integrity at work!

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Adopted July, 2004

To ensure that the Consortium fosters positive characteristics of integrity in the successful achievement of its goals, these Guiding Principles were discussed and adopted (with revisions) during a milestone planning session held by Consortium leaders in Stroud on June 18, 2004. These principles were developed based on the Character First's values and philosophies.

RESPONSIBILITY TO SELF AND OTHERS

Service

- Passion for promoting ethics and integrity
- Encouraging the promotion of ethical behavior through personal actions and
- Sharing ideas and resources
- Responsibility and accountability for fulfilling the mission of the Consortium.

Collaboration

- Achievement of common goals through the promotion of ethical, mutually beneficial relationships
- Service to the Consortium over promotion of self-interest
- Cooperation emphasized over competition in promoting ethical business conduct
- Members collaborate by being constructively engaged in discussions regarding ethics
- Seeking consensus in interactive discussions regarding ethical matters.

Respect

- Members may become aware of confidential information shared by others in an effort to determine an ethical course of action. We ask members to be sensitive in recognizing and respecting the efforts made toward achieving ethical behavior. In that vein, public disclosure of this information is discouraged.
- We respect other members and the process by:
 - Exhibiting listening skills and actively listening to discussions
 - Being open to other points of view and outcomes
- We are an inclusive organization and demonstrate this by welcoming members who are in different stages of learning as applied to ethical behavior.

LEAD WITH INTEGRITY

Dependability

- Members are asked to demonstrate their support of this initiative by consistently attending meetings.

Initiative

- Recruiting other members who have demonstrated a desire to promote ethical behavior in their organizations.
- Recognizing what needs to be done to help promote the Mission of the Consortium and taking action to assist in that effort.

Honor

- Members are asked to honor the Consortium through the practice of integrity and ethical behavior in their business dealings.
- We express gratefulness to our hosts, sponsors and speakers; as well as to those whose volunteer service makes OK Ethics a stronger organization.
- Realizing that each of us is in a mode of continual learning, we demonstrate humility, care and compassion when sharing our thoughts and knowledge.

Courage

- Speak the truth with confidence and encourage others to do the same.

INSPIRE TRUST

We serve and promote the cause of truth with integrity, objectivity and fairness to all persons.

- We hold ourselves accountable by consistently honoring our word.
- We extend trust abundantly to those who have earned it.
- Trust, once earned, will not be taken for granted, manipulated or abused.
