“Ethical Succession Planning: It Is Not Always a QuikTrip”

THURSDAY, June 28 | GUEST SPEAKER

KIM OWEN

QuikTrip Corporation

Sustained success doesn't just happen, it is well thought out and planned well in advance. Kim Owen began her career at QuikTrip as a Benefits Clerk and retired 28 years later as the Vice President of Human Resources for the corporation, a prime example of QuikTrip's purpose of providing employees the opportunity to grow and succeed. Ms. Owen continues to stay involved at QuikTrip as a part time consultant for QuikTrip as well as consulting for other organizations.

Ms. Owen will discuss the ethical implications of succession planning and people development. In Good to Great, Jim Collins discusses “having people in the right seats on the bus.” Kim takes it a step further with “having the right people at the next bus stop.” Ms. Owen will also help attendees understand the importance of creating a framework for succession planning and people development that brings results.
